How results are displayed

There is a threshold of 10 responses before information will be available on the website for schools, parents/carers and the general public to view. Data about each school are displayed in percentages and in easy-to-understand graphs. The results for each school are saved at the end of the academic year, so provide headteachers and governors with a useful year-on-year picture of parents' views.

Schools will also be able to sign up to the Parent View site to receive regular email alerts about Parent View responses once the results are made public. Subscribers can choose how often they want to receive alerts – for example daily, weekly or monthly.

National data

National response rates for all schools are published annually for both maintained and independent schools, but maintained schools will be further broken down by phase. The report provides a breakdown of the proportion of responses to Parent View by question – 'strongly agree', 'agree' and so on – as well as the average number of submissions per school nationally and the total number of submissions received to Parent View in the last 12 months.
